The Book Everybody Is Reading

THE PRACTICE OF AUTOSUGGESTION

By the Method of DR. EMILE COUÉ

C. Harry Brooks explains and simplifies the whole method so fully and clearly that anyone can master it easily and use it effectively. Mr. Brooks offers the result of close association with Dr. Coué and intimate study of his practice. This is the authorized edition, with a foreword by Dr. Coué. $1.25; by mail, $1.35

A New Book About the Man Everybody is Discussing

EMILE COUÉ: The Man and His Work

A graphic picture of the famous scientist by Hugh MacNaghten, Vice-Provost of Eton College. The author describes Dr. Coué's clinics and practice, and portrays with sympathetic interest the man who has earned the gratitude of thousands whose lives he has brightened. $1.00

*A Moving Theme
Of Supreme Love and Loyalty*

SPINSTER OF THIS PARISH

By W. B. Maxwell

"I have long thought Maxwell the greatest of British novelists," said Sir Gilbert Parker. And this book is, says W. Orton Tewson in the Philadelphia Ledger "one of the greatest love stories of recent years." "A masterpiece" agrees the N. Y. Herald. "A glorious book," writes Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. $2.00

*Seeing Ourselves
Through the Eyes of
A Brilliant Englishman*

WHAT I SAW IN AMERICA

By G. K. Chesterton

"Not only the most readable, but the most valuable collection of 'impressions of America' that has been published since the days of Thackeray and Dickens,"—The Ave Maria. "The book is Chesterton at his best; and what a lot that means!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer. $3.00

*The Kind of Story in Which
Mr. Marshall Is at His Best*

PIPPIN

By Archibald Marshall

A charming story of the English highways and byways, which Mr. Marshall knows so well. "A leisurely book this, one to be read slowly, that none of its exquisite charm may be missed," says the N. Y. Times. "Read Mr. Marshall's romance and be glad," advises the N. Y. World. $2.00

THE POISONED PARADISE

By Robert W. Service

Author of "The Spell of the Yukon," etc.

The famous poet again turns novelist and weaves a romance of Monte Carlo. "The story is breathlessly interesting, replete with much action, more romance, and the utmost of tragedy. Such queer, extraordinary characters move across the pages! So many exciting incidents occur! So varied are the backgrounds! Mr. Service knows Monte Carlo well."—The Boston Transcript. $2.00

THE KEY OF DREAMS

By L. Adams Beck

"The author has proved with this and his previous novel, 'The Ninth Vibration,' that he possesses a rich and vigorous imagination that, combined with his notable faculty in the telling of a story and in the use of words, will make his future work worth watching."—New York Times. $2.00

MY DISCOVERY OF ENGLAND

By Stephen Leacock

Author of "Nonsense Novels," "Literary Lapses," etc. "We hadn't read more than a few pages before we began to smile, and in a few minutes the smile had broadened into a laugh and that laugh stayed with us until we closed the covers of the book."—The World's Work. $1.50

*The Magnetic Artist Who Won Fame
As "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray"*

Tells the Remarkable Story of Her Career

MY LIFE AND SOME LETTERS

By Mrs. Patrick Campbell

For many years one of the best loved figures of the stage, Mrs. "Pat" Campbell has had a most brilliant career, and has enjoyed close friendships with many celebrities in the world of art. Her story is one of striking interest picturing, as it does, her association with Pinero, Swinburne, Rossetti, George Bernard Shaw, George Arliss, Oscar Wilde, and other prominent people. Enlightening anecdotes, informal letters and many amusing sidelights enliven this fascinating autobiography. "It is a brave and open narrative," says the London Times—and one you will thoroughly enjoy. Illustrated, $5.00

*A Startling Message
From the Orient*

AN INDISCREET CHRONICLE FROM THE PACIFIC

By Putnam Weale

Author of "Indiscreet Letters from Peking," etc. For more than twenty years the author has held official positions of high importance in the Chinese Government. He probably knows more of the secrets of Far Eastern politics than any other Westerner, and he presents here many striking facts, hitherto generally unknown. A valuable contribution to contemporary historical documents. $3.00

*Fun and Excitement
Abound in This
Brilliant and Charming Romance*

THE SUBCONSCIOUS COURTSHIP

By Berta Ruck

Author of "His Official Fiancee," etc. The delightfully complicated love story of a self-reliant girl who makes her way through amusing adventures to unexpected romance. Light fiction of the best sort. $1.75

*Adds to this Author's
Fast Growing Fame*

CLAIR DE LUNE

By Anthony Pryde

Author of "Margueray's Duel," etc. Courageous Kitty Dent, when she found a successful rival in her husband's art, met the situation with a decision that brought about a rapid succession of dramatic events. $2.00

THE KINGMAKERS

By Burton E. Stevenson

A romance of international intrigue, that, to quote the N. Y. Herald, "will provide several hours' enjoyment for the reader who is looking for something delightfully written, something light and surprising." $1.90

BE YOUR OWN DECORATOR

By Emily Burbank

Clearly and simply the author gives an expert's instructions for decorating, furnishing, and arranging every room in the home economically and in perfect taste. A thoroughly practical book. Illustrated with many helpful drawings. $3.00

FRENCH PICTURES AND THEIR PAINTERS

By Lorinda Munson Bryant

A popular history of the art of France from the eleventh century up to the present time, covering especially those works which have historic and national significance. Over 200 illustrations. $5.00

"A book of charm, of movingly dramatic passages and of characters that richly deserve to take their places with the many lovable beings that have been given life by the fertile imagination of Locke," says the N. Y. Evening Post

W. J. LOCKE'S

Charming Novel

THE TALE OF TRIONA

"And when one wearies of too much poking in garbage heaps" to quote further from the Post, "there are lovely days by the sea, there are decency and honesty and friendship, and even love, and it is of these that Mr. Locke chooses to write." You will enjoy this satisfying story by a master novelist. $2.00

VIOLA GWYN

By George Barr McCutcheon

"Distinctly refreshing . . . a tribute to his craftsmanship," comments the N. Y. Evening Post on McCutcheon's stirring new novel of adventurous pioneer days in Indiana. It is a story full of romance and excitement. $2.00
